Erasing the Lines of “differences” in our community.

INCLUSION TRAINING

Thursday, March 15, 2012, 2 – 5 pm

North Dining Hall at the Olsen Student Center

University of Maine at Farmington

Facilitator: Janet May

Coordinator of Transition and Adults

The University of Maine’s Center for Community Inclusion & Disability Studies

Participants will learn strategies for engaging volunteers and others with disabilities. In addition, the training will address organizational self-assessment strategies to determine the degree to which program/agency policies, procedures, and practices promote inclusivity, and be shown examples of best practices.

Special thanks to those who have participated in this multi-faceted project so far: Darryl Wood from LEAP, Inc.; Linda La-Rue Kenniston, WorkFirst, Inc; Charlie Ames, Peer Advocate with Tri-County Mental Health Services; Sharon Lake, consumer; Lorrie Chicione, consumer; Denise Correll, Employability Skills Instructor, Foster Technology Center/Mount Blue Campus; Janice Daku, Maine Keeping Seniors Home Program, WMCA; Lisa Laflin, Executive Director of United Way of the Tri-Valley Area; Katherine Kemp and UMF students; Liza Robert; Janet May, Center for Inclusion and Disability Studies; Pam Zeutenhorst, Maine Commission for Community Service.

This project is made possible with contributions from the United Way of the Tri-Valley Area, LEAP, Inc., UMF Rehab Club, the Maine Commission for Community Service, and the Corporation for National and Community Service.

Lines remain — lines of separation, misunderstanding and misconception, even fear. All of us hold the eraser. Let’s erase the lines together.

PRE-REGISTRATION is not required but those who do register by MARCH 9th will receive training materials in electronic format.
